ACADEMIC EXPECTATIONS

- I understand that if I arrive after the course start date, this will affect my attendance record and thus reflect on my overall learning and consequent grades.
- I understand that while attendance is my responsibility, IPU New Zealand expects 100% attendance of all students, and anything less may affect my academic progress.
- I understand the course includes the writing of academic essays and reports with accurate Referencing. If I have not previously done any such writing, it may have an adverse affect on my ability to gain the qualification.
- I have read my programme information on the IPU New Zealand website.

IMMIGRATION & INSURANCE MATTERS

- I understand that it is my responsibility to understand and comply with immigration and all visa conditions.
- I attest that the primary purpose of my time in New Zealand is to study.
- I understand that, as a part of health and safety procedures, I need to submit a copy of my vaccination certificate(s) to IPU New Zealand.
- I have enclosed the application for medical and travel insurance.
